

As a retired public school teacher currently serving as Mayor of my rural town in central New Jersey, I think it is really scary that a few huge conglomerates should be able to exercise censorship over the free flow of ideas. Perhaps it will be more "convenient" for a few people, but the larger issue is freedom of the press.

Please do NOT allow such a thing to happen.